ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

- | | |
|----|--|
| 1. | The defendant shall pay restitution at a minimum monthly rate of 10 percent of his gross monthly income. |
|----|--|

Mr. Purcell was ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $11,171.20. He was to make payments at a rate of 10 percent of his gross monthly income per month. According to the most recent report from the U.S. District Court Clerk's office, Mr. Purcell has paid his $200 special assessment and $2,263.06 towards his restitution, leaving his remaining balance at $8,908.14. Mr. Purcell's term of supervision is scheduled to expire on April 7, 2013.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Robert Purcell is employed by Goodwill Industries and lives with his wife in Lebanon, Tennessee. He began his term of supervised release on April 8, 2011, and he is due to terminate supervision on April 7, 2013.

While on supervision, Mr. Purcell has maintained full-time employment and made regular restitution payments. There have been no known violations of the conditions of his supervision. Mr. Purcell has expressed understanding that he will need to continue making restitution payments once his supervision has ended.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is recommended that Mr. Purcell be continued on supervised release and his supervision terminate, as scheduled, on April 7, 2013, with the understanding that he will continue to make restitution payments after supervision has ended.
